Description

Located in the desirable Berkeley Hills neighborhood, this charming three-bedroom home has been completely remodeled. Highlights include hardwood floors throughout, modern light fixtures and finishes, and an efficient floor plan maximizing space where it matters most. Stepping inside, an inviting living room connects to the dining area that is situated off the kitchen. The renovated kitchen includes new quartz countertops, custom cabinetry, stainless steel appliances and a separate bar area with floating shelves. To the right of the living room, you will find three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The spacious primary bedroom offers an en suite bathroom with tiled walls and a pinewood ceiling. A guest bathroom is located off the hall between the two other bedrooms. Additional interior features include built-in shelves, and a fireplace plumbed for gas logs in the living room. The laundry room has also been recently updated to include storage cabinets. Exterior highlights of the property include a beautiful live oak tree in the large fenced-in backyard, ideal for entertaining. A raised deck off the laundry room is perfect for grilling or dining al fresco. The new pergola is equipped with an outdoor TV and is the perfect spot for relaxing. You will feel right at home in this wonderful neighborhood within walking distance to Hanahan Middle and High School. 1024 Holcombe Road is just a short drive to Hanahan Elementary School and the restaurants in Park Circle, and less than 10 miles to Mount Pleasant and Daniel Island.
