Description

Looking for the perfect Southern dream home to come on the market in Carnes Crossroads? Then look no further than what this highly upgraded 5-bedroom, 3.5-bath Radcliff floor plan has to offer with exception upgrades inside and out. The owners invested over $160K in upgrades, ensuring top-tier finishes throughout. Situated on a raised slab, the home has a full front porch overlooking a community park. Inside, the formal dining room features coffered ceilings and wainscoting, while the 5th bedroom--currently used as an office--offers flexibility with a full closet. A butler's pantry with custom wood shelving leads to the chef's kitchen, which includes a 6-burner gas stove, double oven, stacked cabinets, soft-close doors, and an oversized matte quartz island that seats four. The main level also features separate family and living rooms, ideal for entertaining, and a mudroom with backyard access. The first floor and staircase are finished with Kingston Oak hardwood flooring. Upstairs, the primary suite offers a seating area, an upgraded shower and bathtub, and large walk-in closet. A full upstairs balcony is accessible from the hallway. The third floor serves as a private guest or in-law suite with its own full bath and walk-in closet. Outside, enjoy one of the largest lots in the community (0.23 acres), complete with a fully screened-in back patio. This Toll Brothers home is in the heart of Carnes Crossroads, which features a community pool, scenic walking trails, playgrounds, and easy access to shopping and dining. A new Amenity Center is set to open May 2025.
