Description

Welcome to your dream family oasis in The Coves at Martins Creek, nestled in the charming city of Wando, SC. This magnificent 5-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom house is an idyllic retreat for families seeking the perfect blend of luxury and comfort near excellent schools and convenient shopping at nearby Point Hope. Boasting dual primary suites, this property is ideally designed for multi-generational living and those hosting frequent guests. With soaring 10-foot ceilings and a dedicated office space, this home caters to both grandeur and practicality. Host memorable dinners in the elegant formal dining room before retreating to the gourmet kitchen that features marble countertops, a butler's pantry with built in beverage cooler, floor to ceiling cabinetry for maximum storage, and all the bells and whistles for the culinary enthusiast. Experience the warmth and sophistication of hardwood flooring throughout- no carpets here complemented by a myriad of upgrades that exude modern elegance. Step outside onto one of the three porches or the dedicated grilling deck and embrace the serene views as the home backs to woods and a tidal creek, where you can launch your kayak straight from your backyard into Martins Creek. The second floor primary suite is a haven of tranquility, featuring a private porch, built-in dressing in the closet, and a lavish 8' tiled shower with four shower heads. The spacious .48-acre lot includes a wooden swing set, oversized paver patio with a built-in fire pit, and generous outdoor space perfect for entertaining. Relax in the screened porch for additional living space, or make use of the expansive two-car garage and over 1,000 sqft of lower-level space ripe for future expansion. With a parking area that accommodates up to 6 vehicles, there's plenty of room for guests. 120 Martins Point Dr isn't just a house; it's the cornerstone of your family's future. Don't miss the opportunity to call this extraordinary property home. AGENT IS OWNER.
