Description

Charleston single style home on one of Liberty Hall's most attractive and desirable streets! Just around the corner from the neighborhood pool and amenity center, this Charleston single style home stands out from the rest with its signature double porches, towering Palmetto trees and lush sago palms! With three covered porches and 3 bedrooms PLUS a home office, this home has the perfect amount of space inside and out! An ample and open kitchen with a large granite bar top overlooks the family room anchored by a fireplace and wired for surround sound. The main also features a study, formal dining room, breakfast nook, half bath and the laundry room. The screened porch is just off the kitchen/family room and looks out onto the expansive patio and backyard! The driveway has been expanded to conveniently fit two cars side by side. Upstairs is home to the huge primary suite with double vanity, walk in shower and garden tub in the bathroom! The walk-in closet features handsome built-ins and plenty of storage. The other two bedrooms share a tiled hall bath and the access to the upstairs porch is just down the hall. This attractive and well upgraded home also features a new roof installed in 2025 and a new heat pump in 2024, helping out with your insurance premium! With its affordability, central location and highly rated schools, Berkeley county is emerging as the hidden gem of the Lowcountry and Liberty Hall one of its most popular and celebrated communities!
