Description

Combining lessons learned from Charleston's intimate side lanes with the allure of a medieval European village, the nationally-renowned Catfiddle St is tucked away in the Holy City's dynamic Cannonborough-Elliottborough neighborhood. 14 Catfiddle midway down the street, offers a quiet haven unto itself. Off the beaten path, yet convenient to the best of historic Charleston, with more than 20 casual & fine restaurants, coffee shops, local taverns and wine bistros within a 5-min walk. Fortified to age gracefully, the home was built in 2019 of solid masonry construction on high ground. The thoughtful design blends authentic materials designed to age gracefully. Wrought iron, hardwood floors, high ceilings & modern conveniences, plus one covered parking spaces! Come see & be smitten!. The arrival experience evokes awe and wonder. Down charming brick Catfiddle Street, through an intimate pedestrian alley, then up a winding stair into a plant-filled courtyard, pass a gurgling fountain through the front door into a dramatic, light-filled room. Come see and be smitten!
