Description

Welcome to this stunning, better-than-new home, just two years young and brimming with upgrades. This true 6-bedroom home features a thoughtful layout with a guest room and bathroom downstairs, an owner's suite along with four additional bedrooms upstairs, all centered around a huge loft area. Each room has crown molding through-out the house, giving it custom feel. As you walk through the front doors, you are greeted by a large open foyer, beckoning you into the heart of the home. To the left, discover a versatile flex space, currently used as an office but perfect as a dining room or playroom. The modern kitchen boasts bright white cabinets, upgraded granite countertops, and a striking silver glass tile backsplash Granite countertops and a chandelier over the island tie the space together beautifully, while stainless steel appliances complete the kitchen's modern aesthetic. Enjoy multiple dining options with an eat-in kitchen area and hightop counter seating for four at the island. The kitchen is open to the living area creating an opportunity to interact with everyone in the house while cooking. The living room features a custom decorative fireplace designed for visual appeal, with elegant tiles that glow softly in candlelight. This living space is large and bright, allowing plenty of space for gathering friends together. A full bathroom and a guest bedroom off the eating area ensure your guests can relax in comfort. Upstairs, you'll enter a large loft perfect for movie nights and popcorn. The upper level includes four generous bedrooms with ample closet space, a second full bathroom, and the master suite. Conveniently located on this level is the laundry room, eliminating the need to lug laundry baskets up and down the stairs. The owner's suite is a retreat unto itself, spacious enough to accommodate even the largest furniture. The ensuite bathroom features double sinks, upgraded hardware and light fixtures, a full shower, and a large master closet adorned with gorgeous chandeliers. The backyard feels like an oasis with a gazebo, stone patio, round fire pit area, and covered porch. Situated on a pond lot, the fully fenced yard is one of the largest in the neighborhood and feels like paTJ a0hthroom fe
