Description

White squirrels as your neighbors - oh yes! Point Park Estates is one of the cutest established neighborhoods on Johns Island -- filled with mature trees, white squirrels, and even views of Church Creek. It truly is a hidden gem. The brick ranch-style home is on .29 acres and the yard is absolutely amazing - complete with fire pit surrounded by pavers and a storage shed. Inside, the home has hardwood flooring, newer windows, hvac, and a completely finished in sunroom with panoramic windows and mini-split. The home could use some updates but is totally move-in ready. Easy to show.
