Description

Welcome home to this move in ready home on a secluded cul-de-sac on John's Island. This elevated home features drive under parking, functional storage, climate-controlled garage space, an incredible opening to a great outdoor space, and a fenced yard. On the main level you're welcomed by an open floor plan that is wonderful for entertaining guests! The foyer entry leads you by the work from home space, dining room, and to the gourmet kitchen with a butler's pantry overlooking the family room. The additional living space on the main floor encompasses the guest suite and screened porch off the family room. The second floor of the living space boasts a primary suite with a private sitting room and deck off the bedroom. The primary suite closet has a closet system installed. The two additional guest bedrooms upstairs each have an en-suite bathroom. 1607 has had meticulous upkeep in its few short years of ownership to include a new HVAC unit. This property is a short drive to the beaches, downtown, and our Charleston Airport. Enjoy all the perks of Johns Island with two deep water community docks, a playground, and walking trails a stone's throw away.
