Description

A charming 3 bedroom, 2.5 bath home at 1651 Valley Oak Road located in The Garden at Whitney Lake subdivision. Features of this neighborhood include extensive sidewalks, lake access for kayaking, and large green community gathering areas. Enjoy the full double front and screened rear porches that add outdoor living to the generous 2016 sqft of heated and cooled space. When entering the home, you are greeted by a two-story foyer with the office/dining room off to the right. Walking down the entry hall you will pass the half bath and laundry room. The open living room, breakfast nook and kitchen are located on the back half of the first floor. The kitchen features SS appliances with white cabinets, solid surface counter tops and a tile backsplash. Please view photos, video. Upstairs you will find a large landing with access to the three bedrooms. The primary suite located to the back of the house is bathed in natural light and features an updated bathroom and walk in closet. The front secondary bedroom enjoys views of the green area across the street from the large balcony and windows. The third bedroom is tucked between with the shared bath is just off of the landing for easy access for all.
