Description

Hurry to see this charming, one-story cottage on a .44 acre lot in the town of St. George. You will love the front porch, which has beautiful brick flooring and is deep enough for rocking chairs. Inside, the family room is open to the dining area and kitchen. Beyond the kitchen is a sunroom, which leads out to the carport. The two bedrooms and a bath are down a hallway from the family room. The flooring is durable and lovely LVP (which is only 2 years old), with the exception of the kitchen and bathroom being vinyl. All windows were replaced about a year ago. A brand new architectural roof is the crowning glory of this charming home.
