Description

This is a beautiful, very well maintained family home in the highly desired Shelling neighborhood with access to DI schools. The open floor plan on the first level feels bright and airy with south/west facing windows for tons of natural light through plantation shutters. The gas fireplace keeps things cozy and comfortable during the cooler winter season. Upstairs, the primary bedroom and en suite bathroom are spacious and the primary closet was upgraded with a custom Carolina Closet. The recently added large screen porch is a real gem! Look out over the existing patio, covered grilling area, small vegetable and flower gardens and large yard with plenty of green space for a playhouse and other activities. The large garage also has enough space for 2 cars, storage and much more.
