Description

Looking for a home that's private yet still convenient to everything? Enjoy picturesque views of Church Creek and the vast expanse of marsh from the entire rear of the home. Grand oaks, marsh grass, deer, rabbits, herons, and porpoises make this the perfect place for those that appreciate feeling immersed in nature. This modern floorplan has everything. From a generous sized primary suite complete with a custom walk-in closet and full en-suite, to an open concept living / kitchen area, to a butler and walk-in pantry, to garage space galore, this home truly has it all. In addition to the main home, there is a separate guest suite connected via an exterior porch just outside the screened-porch of the main home. The guest suite has a bedroom, bathroom, living area and kitchenette. Separate guest suites are a rare find in this area so if you're looking to house an aging parent, child in transition or set up a home office, this is your chance. This property has been designated as one of the few in the neighborhood to build a shared dock with the neighbor. In addition there is an existing community dock just steps away from the home. Battery Gaillard is connected to West Ashley Park via a walking trail. Outdoor sports activities are just a walk or bike ride away as are other amenities such as playgrounds, fishing, and disc golf.
