Description

In the shadow of the Aiken-Rhett house museum, which is in downtown Charleston's favorite neighborhood, Wraggborough; this three (3) unit development was designed as condominiums and essentially built in 2020 for high-efficiency and low maintenance. Providing eleven (11) bedrooms, nine (9) bathrooms and three (3) half-baths currently leased through July 2025, as long-term, unfurnished rentals for a total of $16,025/mo., net operating income in 2024 was $153,078. This unique property provides many options for a discerning new owner to manage or occupy. Site plan, floor plans and photos available in media.
