Description

Located in the highly desirable Wagener Terrace neighborhood in downtown Charleston, 223 Grove Street is just a stroll away from Hampton Park and the Ashley River. Built in 1968, this mid-century modern ranch home exudes style and features three bedrooms and two full bathrooms. It showcases a thoughtful open floor plan and beautiful original oak flooring throughout the home. The interior has plenty of natural light and the primary suite has been freshly modernized with all new interior walls, electric, ceiling lights and a sisal rug. Two large living areas seamlessly flow into the dining space and kitchen. The kitchen features open shelving, a stainless steel gas stove and refrigerator. The primary suite offers a brand-new bathroom with a curbless shower, dual sinks, a large closet and laundry. There are also two additional spacious bedrooms with a large hall bath with tub/shower. Charming French doors from the primary bedroom lead to the private, fenced-in backyard with a pergola, perfect for entertaining or relaxing. Experience the timeless charm of mid-century design paired with a modern flair, all with easy access to Charleston's top dining, shopping and cultural attractions.
