Description

Great Price per square foot! True 6 bedroom home with floor plan and lot that truly makes filling those bedrooms work! One bedroom & full bath on first floor to accommodate multi-generational living, guest suite, or not having everyone upstairs, large walk-in laundry room, dining room that holds a long table, private office, open kitchen with bar seating and room for table, family room that accommodates a huge sectional, drop zone off of the garage, tankless hot water heater to never run out of hot water, screened porch and extended patio on your .38 acre lot with lake view in front (with fountain) and protected woodlands beyond your fenced in yard. Additional bedrooms on second floor all hold large beds and furniture. Primary suite has an enormous walk-in closet, shower and soaking tub. 5 year old home with approx. six month old septic system upgraded for large family. The Bridges at Seven Lakes is a gated community short drive to all of the new shops and restaurants on Clements Ferry Rd. Attends Philip Simmons Middle and High School. Close to the amazing Baseball facilities at Shipyard Park, the Francis Marion National Forest (259,000 acres of hiking trails), Middleburg Plantation, several boat landings and equestrian centers. Neighborhood is just what so many are looking for but can't find in the Charleston area, larger lots for privacy and enjoyment but also top tier amenities including a 65 acre lake with kayak launch, resort-style swimming pool, fire pit with seating, pickleball court and play and dog parks.
