Description

Welcome to 27 Allway! This Freedman's Cottage style downtown location is just steps away from MUSC, The Riverdogs, and the shopping/restaurants/spa of WestEdge. Built in 1935, you have the perfect blend of historic meets modern. As you drive up to your new fully renovated home, the automatic gates and exterior lighting welcome you home with the touch of a button. The 3 bed/1 bath home features shiplap walls, exposed brick fireplaces, original refinished hardwood flooring, an updated kitchen with 42-in cabinets and an eat-in island, and new Samsung stainless-steel appliances. Original framing has been repurposed for the accented beam work. The bathroom has been completely renovated to include a fully tiled shower, chevron-style tiled flooring, a new vanity with granite top, and topped off with matching gold accented hardware. Enjoy the fully enclosed backyard with privacy fence as you light the barbeque or enjoy a night star gazing in your expansive backyard. This home could not be any more centrally located for either easy commutes or walking/bicycling around town. It is an easy walking distance to Publix and the restaurants and spa at West Edge, MUSC campus, Roper, the Joe Riley Baseball Stadium, the Citadel/Johnson Hagood Stadium, 17/61/Septima Clark and so many other desirable destinations.
