Description

Welcome to 270 Stefan Drive unit 11C, a charming two-story townhouse on James Island, featuring a private gated backyard with brick-lined tabby shell hardscaping. The renovated kitchen opens nicely to the dining and living space, and the convenient layout includes a half bath on the first floor and an updated full bath upstairs. The main living area features durable ceramic tile floors that beautifully mimic hardwood, along with fresh paint throughout and brand-new carpet in the bedrooms. The backyard includes a storage shed for added convenience. Ideally located just minutes from downtown Charleston and the beaches, you're within close proximity to great shops, restaurants, playgrounds, and the Pour House farmer's market. There's also a public boat landing and the municipal golf course just down the road. Don't miss the opportunity to make this delightful home yours!
