Description

This classic, stately home is situated on a one acre lot on a quiet residential street. The wrap-around porch beckons you to a time when life was a little slower and sweeter. The outside of this home is freshly painted and the front porch flooring is brand new. Inside you will find high ceilings, original moulding, some original hardwood flooring, and lots of tall windows. There is a large bedroom and en suite bath downstairs and three large bedrooms and one bath upstairs.

Downstairs, there are three other rooms for family room, dining room, and den (or whatever kind of room you need). The interior is certainly livable, but could use some refreshing. It has been priced accordingly. Don't miss your opportunity to restore the interior of this classic beauty to its splendor.
