Description

This cozy cottage home is situated on a large fenced in corner lot in the neighborhood of Waylyn. This property is also zoned as B-1 (limited business district), and can be your next small business venture. As you walk through the door you are greeted by the well maintained original hardwood floors and tall, smooth ceilings. The home features storm doors, allowing additional natural light to brighten up the living spaces. The living room is perfect for a family movie night, or hosting a game night with friends. The kitchen is adorned with butcher block counter tops, convenient built-in shelving, and sleek stainless steel appliances. No need to worry about storage space! This home features not only a shed in the backyard, but also easy access to attic space. Take a step outside and let your imagination run wild with possibilities. The backyard provides the opportunity for a private backyard oasis. This home is conveniently located just a short 15 minute drive from Historic Downtown Charleston, where you will find an abundance of local shopping, dining and entertainment options. Don't wait!
