Description

Nestled within the picturesque confines of Daniel Island Park's esteemed Nobel's Point neighborhood sits 305 Apprentice. Positioned proudly on a coveted corner lot, this residence boasts a well-maintained estate with glimpses of the gorgeous Lowcountry marshlands. Welcoming you with the timeless charm of southern-style wrapped porches and the warm embrace of oak floors, this abode exudes an aura of traditional comfort. The heart of the home, a gourmet kitchen, stands ready to deliver culinary delights with its custom cabinetry, quartz countertops, luxury appliances, and a walk-in pantry. A formal dining room sets the stage for memorable gatherings with its designer chandelier and numerous windows. Flowing into the large living room, you will find a coffered ceiling and glass doors to the screened porch. Stepping onto the screened porch, you will find a relaxing space to unwind and views of the garden. The fenced backyard also offers lush landscaping and access to the detached FROG. Retreat to the spacious owner's suite, a sanctuary of tranquility and refinement, offering a serene escape from the everyday hustle and bustle. The large en suite bath offers a dual sink custom vanity, walk-in glass shower, freestanding tub, and two custom closets. Rounding out the first floor is a convenient office and walk-in laundry room. This home caters to both professional obligations and domestic chores with ease and efficiency. Ascending upstairs, a generously proportioned bonus room awaits, offering boundless possibilities for customization. Whether envisioned as a media room, expansive office space, or a fun playroom, this versatile area, complete with access to a private balcony and an en suite bathroom, stands poised to accommodate any need. The second and third bedrooms, linked by a thoughtfully designed jack-and-jill style bath, provide comfort and privacy for family members or guests alike. A fabulous detached FROG with an open layout, kitchenette, and full bath provides an inviting retreat for long-term guests or multiple visitors. Vistas of the marshlands serve as a constant reminder of the natural splendor that surrounds this home. Residents are encouraged to explore the nearby community dock, take the children to the park, or walk the miles of trails.
