Description

This unique property located on Johns Island is secluded and quiet but close to Historic Downtown Charleston and area beaches. The home underwent a complete renovation from the kitchen to the bathrooms and everything in between! The original heart pine floors were redone, and they are breathtaking. The entrance is grand, with cathedral ceilings in the entire great room. An extra large deck was installed to enjoy nature's beauty. The fire pit is also a great place to enjoy the huge yard. Close to Charleston, Kiawah, and many restaurants on Johns Island. The current owner installed new high-impact black framed windows and a privacy fence. The shed was renovated to allow extra storage.
