Description

Charming bungalow on a beautiful tree-lined street in Old Windermere of West Ashley. This well-maintained home offers original 1940's charm paired with modern conveniences, providing a wonderful opportunity to live just minutes from Historic Charleston. The front family room offers an abundance of light and is enhanced with built-in shelves and a wood-burning fireplace. In the formal dining room, built-in corner cabinets offer a splash of color, vintage charm, and extra storage. The kitchen has ample cabinet space, a center island with counter seating, two sinks, plus room for a small dining table or seating area. The kitchen leads directly to the deck, providing a nice spot for effortless entertaining and dining al fresco. Adding to the appeal is the back patio shaded by amazing oak trees, offering a pleasant spot for play and relaxation. The primary suite was added in 2009 and offers a large bedroom with sitting area, along with a very spacious bathroom and generous walk-in closet, and is located at the back of the house for added privacy from the front rooms. Finishing touches include large windows, grass cloth wallpaper, and views of the lush backyard. Two additional bedrooms complete the first floor, along with a full bathroom and half bathroom. The finished attic space has been used as a playroom but has great potential for an additional bedroom. Plans are in-hand for these renovations, should the buyer be interested. The home has been lovingly maintained and is move-in ready. Located on high ground (no flood insurance required) and just minutes from Downtown Charleston. It is a short walk from the West Ashley Greenway, and an easy trip to all the conveniences of the Windermere shopping center.
