Features

Description

This is a beautiful open space that can accommodate a number of design plans. Current floor plan has no structural obstacles. Large windows along with a large skylight gives this a very open and sunny feel. In the middle of King Street, this location is second to none for anyone looking to live in the downtown Charleston District. Walk to Marion Square or any number of restaurants, activities or points of interest in downtown Charleston. Possible opportunity for a roof deck.
