Description

This is a beautiful house right in the historic district of the charming town of McClellanville. The house sits on a huge lot and is just a minute away from both the water (boat landing) and T W Graham & Co for fresh seafood, . There's plenty of space for boats, campers, toys, etc. The house has an open concept and is a cool and eclectic design. This spot is perfect for someone who loves the outdoors and sustainable living. The house features solar panels (no loan). There is a large front porch that is great for entertaining/dinners. The house is elevated with storage underneath the house. You will find underneath the house is a great set up to prepare food and relax. The yard is a perfect blank slate to customize with gardens, shed, etc.
