Description

Originally built for the civilians working at the Navy Shipyard, Waylyn is a classic North Charleston neighborhood on the rebound. Plenty of new parks, investments, and a solid neighborhood council are ensuring Waylyn has a great future! This home needs a complete renovation and a 3rd party estimate is available to bring this home up to where it needs to be (would be substantially cheaper for an investor with their own crew). Driving in, you will see the investments being made in this neighborhood, come be a part of it!
