Description

Located in the celebrated Daniel Island Country Club neighborhood, this exquisite marsh-front home being built by Lowcountry Premier Custom Homes, is strategically located to provide all the best that Daniel Island offers. This property includes access to a coveted Full Golf Membership to the Daniel Island Club, a rare opportunity for immediate unlimited access to 36 of the most stunning golf holes in Charleston. This stunning, future custom-build, defines Lowcountry living at its best. The home boasts over 5,000 square feet of heated space with breathtaking marsh views. The tabby shell walkway leads you to the stately brick stair, where you ascend to a custom front door, soldiered by elegant gas lanterns. As you enter the home you are greeted by 10" wide European white oak floors throughout. The great room includes a custom fireplace with a beamed ceiling. Distinguished crown molding and wainscoting details are astounding and add immense elegance to all spaces. All bathrooms as well as the laundry rooms are adorned with intricate tile flooring. The kitchen is a chef's paradise and perfectly designed for entertaining boasting custom cabinets and a 48" gas stove. The exterior of this amazing house features a metal roof and Nu cedar siding, with stucco on the garage level. A custom-designed infinity pool with a tanning ledge, hot tub, and heater/chiller are included. Outdoor entertaining is a breeze with multiple covered porches, Ipe decking, an outdoor kitchen, Phantom screens, ceiling heaters, an exterior fireplace, and much more. The lower level includes over 2,500 square feet of garage/storage with dehumidification. A 3-stop elevator takes you to all floors. Also included, are 2 tankless water heaters, a mosquito misting system, and an extensive whole-house brain center providing state-of-the-art technology. Don't miss this unique opportunity to own a piece of paradise. The list of unique customizations is endless and anxiously awaiting your guidance. The design team, including full interior design services, will work with you to customize and adorn the home with your personal style and touches. Join us for an adventure in outfitting this home and making it your own piece of paradise.
