Description

Rare opportunity to live in the desirable, The Island, section of Belle Hall. This marshfront home sits on a .38 acre lot and offers breathtaking views, while being close to schools, shopping, dining, and more. Enjoy the tranquil marsh scenery from your own backyard while appreciating the ease of access to everything you need. The first floor features a separate dining room that flows seamlessly into a gourmet kitchen, adjoining a charming breakfast area offering beautiful views. The spacious family room with a fireplace extends to a screened porch and deck, providing an ideal space for relaxing or entertaining while enjoying the surrounding natural beauty. Enjoy the convenience of a first-floor master suite, complete with a comfortable sitting area, a roomy walk-in closet, and a private bath. The second floor features a bedroom with its own private bath, providing comfort and privacy. Additionally, there are two more bedrooms, a full bath, and a versatile bonus room with a closet, that could serve as a media room, playroom or office. This home offers abundant storage space with walk-in closets in every bedroom, a walk-in attic, and additional attic spaces accessible from two of the second-floor walk-in closets. Additionally, there is a room on the ground level, not included in the square foot, that could be used for more storage or even as a gym.
