Description

Welcome to the Buffalo Creek Central Tract, a sprawling +/- 132-acre retreat located in Jefferson, SC. Just an hour's drive from Columbia and slightly over an hour from Charlotte, this property embodies the essence of countryside living within reach of urban amenities. Encompassing a diverse landscape of pre-merchantable pine plantation and hardwood drains, the tract not only showcases natural beauty but also presents an enticing opportunity for long-term timber investment. Boasting over 7,000 feet of road frontage along Buffalo Creek and Mt. Pisgah Roads, accessibility is a standout feature. Whether you're considering timber management, outdoor recreation, or potential development, this property offers endless possibilities. Outdoor enthusiasts will delight in the recreational opportunities available, from hunting to hiking and beyond. Moreover, with power access readily available at the road, the Buffalo Creek Central Tract is an ideal canvas for crafting a rural retreat or a dream home with ample acreage to spare.
