Description

A prominent property on the corner of Ashe Street, this downtown home has been meticulously renovated, rebuilt entirely while preserving original historic charm. Restored wood floors and brick fireplaces complement a new luxury kitchen equipped with all modern amenities and traditional Charleston design. A classic Piazza just off the kitchen & living room offers private, covered outdoor space. The home offers four bedrooms, each with their own en suite marble bathrooms. Beyond all four bedrooms offering their own four full bathrooms, an additional half bath powder room is just off the living room. This Cannonborough Elliotborough neighborhood home offers close walkable proximity to some of the best restaurants & shops of Charleston. A private, recently renovated driveway offers 2 parkingspaces, and the corner location offers the ease of enjoyment of the local neighborhood or a quick 4 block walk to King Street.
