Description

Now listed $50,000 below appraisal! Welcome to 66 Poplar Street, a beautifully updated home in downtown Charleston's North Central neighborhood. Recently renovated in 2019, the home includes a new roof, HVAC, plumbing, and electrical, making it truly move-in ready. With around 2,400 square feet of living space, this home blends modern comfort with classic charm. It also includes a 120-square-foot finished room with power and air conditioning --ideal for an office or gym. With the addition of a future pool, this space could also be the perfect pool house. Inside, the open floor plan is perfect for everyday living, with a spacious kitchen featuring granite countertops, updated appliances and a large pantry. The kitchen has great flow and blends seamlessly into the dining area, making it easy to entertain. The large first floor primary suite at the back of the house opens to the backyard. This flexible space could serve as an office, playroom or extended living area. Upstairs, you'll find four spacious bedrooms, including a secondary primary suite with a beautiful, tiled shower. Located just steps from Hampton Park and a short stroll to popular dining spots like Park and Grove Café and The Harbinger, this home offers both convenience and charm in a wonderful downtown Charleston location.
