Description

Southern charm meets deep-water living in the heart of Mt Pleasant's Desirable Creekside neighborhood. Originally built by renowned Charleston builder Harry Hitopoulos, this stunning home showcases timeless charm with reclaimed Heart of Pine floors, a cozy fireplace, and versatile living spaces, including a bonus room (previously a garage) and a large room with a vaulted ceiling and pine walls for your yoga, art, dance studio! This amazing Retreat is situated just minutes from downtown Charleston and Sullivan's Island, the home also offers optional membership to the Creekside Tennis & Swim Club. Set on high ground with nearly half an acre beneath majestic oaks draped with Spanish moss, 741 Creekside offers direct deep-water access to Shem Creek via a private dock, perfect for boating, fishing, or simply enjoying the area's abundant wildlife. Outdoor amenities include an expansive Charleston brick patio, an oversized deck, and a new heated saltwater pool with jacuzzi. This home presents an excellent floor plan with ample opportunities for customization and updates, allowing you to create your dream residence in one of Mt. Pleasant most sought-after neighborhoods.
