Description

Renovated charmer on a huge lakefront lot with the backyard of your dreams in the highly coveted Moreland neighborhood just over the Ashley River from Downtown! There is nothing on the market that offers the size, location, and condition of this home for the price. The owners maintained the character of this mid-century home and maximized the space during the renovation, adding a primary bedroom with an en-suite bath on the main floor and a flex space upstairs which could be an additional bedroom or office. Downstairs includes the living room, formal dining room, kitchen, primary suite, guest room (currently used as family room/playroom), full bathroom, and mudroom/laundry room with built-in dropzone. Outside, the spacious screened-in porch overlooks the professionally landscaped, fenced-in backyard with room for a pool, loads of natural sunlight, and plenty of shade under the majestic grand oaks. Your very own private oasis sits lakefront, where beautiful herons and egrets thrive, and provides incredible sunset views. You will absolutely want to throw a grand garden party in this Lowcountry paradise! Back inside, head upstairs to the two additional guest bedrooms, flex space, and full bathroom. There is also a second story porch overlooking the backyard! Enjoy post game fireworks from the front porch steps every Friday in the summer after meeting friends for dinner in Avondale or downtown - both of which are just minutes away. About as close to Downtown as you can get from West Ashley! Convenient to all things
