Description

Welcome Home to a newly renovated, three-story Charleston single-family home located South of Broad within the Historic District. The home offers large rooms with plenty of natural light, high ceilings, beautiful original heart pine floors, and a "Rainbow Row" paint scheme. The kitchen features handcrafted cabinetry, crown molding, built-in banquettes, and gorgeous solid-slab marble countertops. An open living and dining room with a fireplace and new hurricane-rated french doors leads to the brick patio. A little powder room completes the first floor. The wide staircase reaches the other levels to the four spacious bedrooms and two full bathrooms. A fabulous rooftop deck completes the package and adds romantic charm with amazing views. This is not to be missed. A fabulous rooftop deck completes the package and adds romantic charm with additional outdoor space. Convenient to everything that the lower peninsula of Charleston has to offer. This property is not to be missed.
