Description

Welcome to 941 Pinckney Street, nestled in the heart of McClellanville, a charming fishing village perfectly positioned between Charleston and Georgetown. Known for its serene atmosphere and laid-back lifestyle, McClellanville offers a sanctuary for those seeking tranquility and coastal charm. This exquisite home is a testament to craftsmanship, boasting impeccable woodworking details throughout. Meticulously maintained, the pride of ownership shines through every corner. The main residence features three spacious bedrooms, each with its own en suite bathroom, offering comfort and privacy. Ample storage abounds, complemented by the convenience of a backup generator. Situated on nearly an acre of land, the property invites outdoor living with potential for a pool and expansive grounds to enjoy. A brand-new roof was also installed in 2024. A highlight of the estate is the impressive 1500 sq. ft. guest house, complete with an additional bedroom and bathroom upstairs. This space is ideal for hosting family or friends in comfort and style. A home office and extra storage space ensure functionality meets luxury. For the avid boater or outdoor enthusiast, a 32' x 13.5' (approx. 432 sq. ft.) carport with 12.5' clearance provides ample room to store a large boat, reflecting the practicality of coastal living. Join the local boat landing, only a mile down the road, for $50 a year. Don't miss the opportunity to make 941 Pinckney Street your McClellanville retreat, where craftsmanship meets coastal living at its finest. Experience the charm and allure of this unique property in a town celebrated for its slower pace of life and rich heritage.
