Description

This 93.9-acre property on Broxton Bridge Hwy in Lodge, SC, offers a mix of farmland and woodlands suited for a range of uses. Approximately 52 acres are dedicated to hay fields. Good for livestock, horses, or farming. The remaining land is mixed young pine. The combination of open fields and wooded areas makes this property a good fit for those looking to establish a homestead, run a farm, or as a hunting property. The property is a short drive from Walterboro, Hampton, and Ehrhardt, where groceries, dining, and other essentials can be found. Charleston is about 60 miles away, providing access to a larger city while still allowing for the peace and privacy of country living.
