Description

The bend at 4 holes is a unique opportunity to own 145 acres less than 50 minutes from Charleston. The location of this beautiful property mixed with the untapped hunting potential make this property a great investment opportunity in a growing area. When you arrive at the property you will drive down a well maintained gravel road leading back to the expansive 145 Acres. The land was recently clear cut making it easy to clear a homesite for your future dream home. A mix up upland and low lying wetlands make this property perfect for all recreational and hunting activities.
